Notice

Chartered Accountancy Examination

This is to inform that the Institute has decided to conduct Chartered Accountancy Examination of postponed June 2020 jointly with the scheduled Chartered Accountancy Examination to be held in December 2020.

Therefore, the students who have submitted their examination form for June 2020 postponed Chartered Accountancy Examination can appear in Chartered Accountancy Examination to be held in December 2020. With this decision of the Institute both June and December 2020 batch examinations have been merged by cancelling postponed June 2020 examination and students of respective batches will have privilege to carry over their exemptions in papers as they would have been allowed in normal situation.

Further, any student who has submitted only one group examination form for June 2020 postponed examination can now avail the opportunity to submit examination form for another group too by paying applicable fees.

Further, it is informed to all the students that the Institute has decided to conduct the examination of merged batches of June and December 2020 examinations from 1st December 2020. The notice regarding the examination form will be published soon.

Therefore, students are advised to stay in touch with the Institute's website www.ican.org.np to obtain timely information regarding opening of examination form and other information related to the examination to be held in December 2020.
